CERTIORARI TO THE INTERMEDIATE COURT OF APPEALS

NOTICE

(By: Acoba, J.)

On December 11, 2009, counsel employed with the law firm Watanabe Ing LLP filed a motion for leave to appear and file a brief as amicus curiae on behalf of First Hawaiian Bank (FHB), which was denied on December 14, 2009. On December 15, 2009, a motion for reconsideration was filed by FHB, which was granted on December 16, 2009. This notice is to inform all parties that one of my law clerks, Tracey Kubota, was previously employed as a summer associate by Watanabe Ing during the summer of 2008, and has accepted an offer of employment after her clerkship ends, but has had no involvement in this case and will have no involvement in this case.

Any party concerned about my participation in the disposition of this appeal may object to such participation. Because oral argument is set for December 17, 2009, upon the filing of a written objection by any party by 3:30pm today, December 16, 2009, I will recuse myself. The failure to object as set forth herein will be deemed a waiver of disqualification.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawai'i, December 16, 2009.

Associate Justice
